Ah, the merry month of May!...
Spring, the sweet spring
Cuckoo, jug-jug, pu-we, to-witta-woo!

The chorus of birds... the woodland flowers... the fragrant perfumes... the sweet-smelling earth! Breathe deeply, Tintin.
Fill your lungs with fresh air...
air so pure and sparkling you could drink it!

As far as perfume goes,
I wouldn't call this exactly fragrant.

You're right!

No wonder! Look at that disgusting rubbish dump. The filth from every dustbin in the neighbourhood is chucked over there.

Good heavens! Some people seem to be attracted by the stink! ... Fantastic!

Gipsies!

No sense of hygiene, the guttersnipes. Incredible!

Ssh!... Listen! That sounds like a child crying ...

Trouble!

Well, if that's all you can see, I can tell your fortune, too!

You must be careful... otherwise I see an accident... But not serious... I see you in a carriage... AAAH! A beautiful stranger approaches... She is coming to visit you... AAAH! She has wonderful jewels, and... OOH!... A terrible disaster

Go on, go on!

The jewels are gone... vanished!... stolen! You cross my palm with silver and I tell you many more things.

No, no! That's enough! Let go of my hand!

Just a little silver... otherwise you will suffer great misfortune!... The jewels will disappear!

Me too!... That's enough mumbo-jumbo for one day.

Well, goodbye, and take care of that little cherub. But if you take my advice, you'll camp somewhere else, and not on this rubbish-dump... In the first place, it's unhealthy...

D'you think we're here because we like it? D'you imagine we enjoy living surrounded by filth?

You mean...

Quiet, Mike, let me talk to this gajo.

Me, a gajo?

That's what we call anyone who isn't a Romany... Listen, we arrived here yesterday with a sick man, and this was the only place where the police would let us camp.

So that's it!

Blistering barnacles! Now, just you listen to me. You're not staying here!... There's a large meadow near the Hall, beside a stream. You can move in there whenever you like.

Making people live on a dung-heap like this. It's revolting!

I'm glad you could help them.

THUMP

Poor Professor!... Anything broken?

Yes, a piece several inches long!

That confounded step! Still not repaired! When's that sluggish of a builder coming?

I telephone him constantly, sir, and he assures me he'll come...

Well, I'll show you how to deal with him!

Hello?... Hello? Mr Bolt?... What, that isn't Mr. Bolt?

No, sir, this is Cutts the butcher... Yes, sir, ... Not at all, sir.

Hello?... Is that Mr. Bolt?

Yes... oh, yes sir... Yes, I do know... I... Yes, a sudden rush of work... Yes, very tire-some... What? Oh yes, sir, it's very dangerous too... When?... Well, yes, I... I'll come along... er... tomorrow. Yes, first thing tomorrow... You can rely on me, sir. Good-bye.

That's how to get results, Nestor. Just a touch of firmness, that's all. He'll be here tomorrow, as you heard.

Seeing is believing, sir!

Now for a little drink: the fresh air makes me thirsty!... All well, Tintin?

A letter from Chang in London: he's fine, and sends you his regards.

What a nice lad he is.

Yes, and another letter... You'll never guess who from: Bianca Castafiore!

Bianca Castafiore! Ha! ha! ha! The dear old Milanese nightingale!

Hello, there's a storm brewing.

And what has that delightful creature to say?

No, it's passed over.

That she's arriving here at Marlinspike tomorrow!

Excuse me, signora, may I introduce our old friend Professor Calculus.

How enchanting, how absolutely thrilling to meet you: the man who makes all those daring ascents in balloons!

I am deeply honoured, signora. What a rare pleasure for me to meet so great an artist... an artist of such charm, such distinction, such...

Professor, you make me blush!

I sincerely hope so, signora. Tintin has often spoken of your pictures...the delicacy of the drawing in perfect harmony with the boldness of the colour. And your portraits, I know, always display an amazing likeness.

Nestor, please show the signora to her room.

Yes, sir.

How kind... But first...er... Irma, where is the...er...the little something for dear Captain Drydock?

In the taxi, madame. I'll fetch it.

I thought... I thought that an old sailorman like yourself must feel very lonely in his little boat... Il povero capitano!

That's very kind of you, but...

I knew you'd adore...

Here, Madame.

I... What a...surprise!... What a delightful surprise!...Nothing could have given me...er... greater pleasure.

Aha! I knew it!

Here, Irma, put him on his perch.

Yes, madame.

I can't stand animals who talk!

They've unloaded the luggage. This is where she's staying... To work, Gino!

Ah, Captain: my men report that some gipsies who were camping by the main road have moved... It seems you invited them to pitch camp on your land... Is that so?

Quite correct, Inspector. I think it's intolerable! Those wretched creatures forbidden to camp except on a rubbish dump! And as I have a meadow...

Hello-o-o! I can hear you!

Hello?... What?... You can hear me?... Well, I can hear you. And since we can hear each other, let me say I quite understand your action, Captain. It's most generous... I beg your pardon... Did you say shut up?

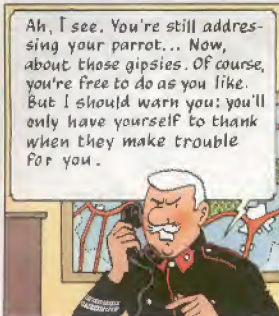

No... not you!... I'm talking to this pestilential parakeet! Will you shut up, you ...

Hello-o-o! I can hear you!

Ah, I see. You're still addressing your parrot... Now, about those gipsies. Of course, you're free to do as you like. But I should warn you: you'll only have yourself to thank when they make trouble for you.

Trouble!... Ha! ha! First I'm bitten by a little wildcat, then by a parrot!... I sprain an ankle... Castafiore descends on me with Irma and that budding Beethoven... And they talk about trouble!... Ha! ha! ha! ha!...

Meanwhile ...

Mission completed: all settled in.

I hate them, the gajos. They pretend to help, but in their hearts they despise us ...

Not these, Mike, not these.

Let me introduce Christopher Willoughby-Drupe and Marco Rizotto of "Paris-Flash".

Hello!

'Morning

Well, gentlemen, now that you've all met, I will release you. Roam about in the grounds as you please. Captain Hassock and I will expect you to lunch.

Now, my dear, let us have a little chat.

Well, what do you make of it?

The same as you, chum! This is a sensation... But we must be sure...

True or not, Marco my boy, it'll sell!

I can just see the cover!

Look, a gardener. Come on, we'll try to pump him.

O.K.!

But...it isn't the gardener... it's Professor Calculus, who went to the moon with Tintin. He should be in the know.

Let's go!

Good morning, Professor. May we introduce ourselves: Christopher Willoughby-Drupe and Marco Rizotto of "Paris-Flash". Here's our card.

From the Yard?

Reporters! ... So that's it! The Captain had to tell someone. He's already tumbled to the papers about my new rose, the old gossip!

Tell me, Professor, off the record, isn't there something in the wind between La Castafiore and Captain Haddock? ... Plans for a wedding? ... Am I right?

It was the Captain who told you, wasn't it?

Well... yes and no... You know how it is... we reporters... Flair, you understand... So it's true?

Great sunspots! And he promised to say nothing! It was to have been a surprise...

I quite understand... How soon will it be?

It all depends on the weather... But it could happen any day now.

Aha! So it's imminent, then! And... how long has this been fixed? Can you give any little snippets about them... How they first met, for example?

Precisely! ... It was two years ago...

...at the Chelsea Flower Show. But ssh! Here she comes... Signora Bianca, with the Captain. Not a word about this!

Right!

Er... the Professor was telling us... er... about his roses. How magnificent they are!

Exquisite. I was just saying so to Captain Havoc.

Meanwhile...

Got that? Sugarplum... Oriana... Semiramis...

IRMA-A-A!

Oh, it's you!... Something frightful has happened: I've just broken my neck-lace!

Don't worry, signora. I'm sure we'll find all the beads.

There you are at last! I've been calling you for hours. You should have been here to pick up my necklace.

I am so grateful, my young friend.
It's not that this necklace is particularly valuable: it's only fashion jewellery. But it's from Tristan Bior. And say what you like, Bior is still Bior!

Er... obviously!

Now let's see about the Captain's nose.

Don't think I'm angry with you, Captain, but why did you tell them about my rose?

What? Your rose?

Your rose! Will you shut up about your rose! Blistering barnacles, if I hadn't had one shoved in my face, I shouldn't have a nose like an overgrown strawberry!

Oh no, white!

Excuse me, madame, have you seen my embroidery scissors...
you know, the little gold ones...

Why should I have seen them, girl? It's not my job to look after your things.

I didn't say that, madame
... It's strange, I had them earlier, when you called me
the first time; when I returned to my seat I couldn't

Well, have a good look, my

No, madame.

article about me in "Paris-Flash"?

Yes, I have seen it, madam!... You call it marvellous?... Announcing our marriage!
Oh, yes, priceless,

But it doesn't mean a thing. The newspapers have already engaged me to the Maharajah of Gopal, to Baron Halmaszout, the Lord
Chamberlain of Syldavia, to Colonel Sponsz, to the Marquis di Gorgonzola, and goodness knows who. So you see, I'm quite used

... And poor Signora Castafiore is appearing on television, and no one thinks of telling her! ... It's monstrous!

Come with me, Professor. It's all a misunderstanding.

Come, Professor, let me explain...

Pained?! ... Me? ... Pained?!

Certainly not, but...

We'll pick up from the last question ... Stand by! ... Sound on!

May I ask, signora, whether you have any plans?

Yes, a series of recitals in the United States, where I shall stay for two months: they are longing to hear me.

Poor Americans! What have they done to deserve it?

Then to South America to conquer the capitals...

And reduce them to ruins as well!

And ... tell me, signora; which works will you perform on your tour... or should I say, your triumphal progress?

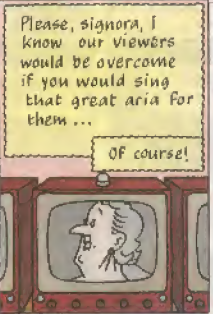

How well you put it! ... Yes, as usual, I shall be singing Rossini, Puccini, Verdi, Gouni... Oh, silly me! Gounod!

Ah, Gounod? Wasn't it in Gounod that you achieved your greatest success... made your name, in fact?

Yes, the Jewel Song from "Faust" swept me to the pinnacle of fame. They say I'm divine ...

Colour television, of course! The other day, looking at all those sets, I thought to myself: what a pity the pictures are only in black and white!

The studio? Er ...

I don't need to tell you... In the studio the subjects are all in colour... Well, the purpose of my apparatus is to restore those colours! ... How? ... How? ... Well, roughly speaking, by colour filters inserted between an ordinary television set and a special screen. I call it "Super-Calcolor".

But that's brilliant!

You think so? ... In all modesty I must say my own comment would be: brilliant! But you shall judge my invention for yourselves. Tonight they have that famous programme "Scanorama" ... Will you join me?

... summary of the facts. As you know, the famous Italian singer Bianca Castafiore is staying in this country...

Ah, my beauty past compare is that me? Oh, how horrible!

At historic Marlinspike Hall, the prima donna was the victim of a daring robbery. A magnificent emerald vanished... mysteriously!

Today a Scanorama reporter went down to Marlinspike and spoke to the officers in charge of the case. Over to Thompson and Thomson...

No, our lips are sealed. We can't tell you whom we suspect, but it isn't anyone in the house. Mum's the word, you know.

Yes, dumb's the word, that's our motto. So we're not allowed to tell you about the gypsies, though we suspected them from the start...

Especially after they cleft their lamp...er... left their camp, the morning after the robbery. But we soon ran them to earth, and then when we searched their caravans we made a startling discovery!

Not only did we discover a pair of scissors belonging to Signora Castafiore's maid, but in one of their caravans...

...we found a messed-up Flunkey ...er... a dressed-up monkey. Obviously, the emerald could only have been stolen by a man climbing the wall: in fact, a man of remarkable agility... And that man has been found: the monkey! Of course the whole bunch...

...denied it furiously. The scissors had been 'found' by a little girl. As for the monkey, he'd never been out of his cage.

So that's how things stand ... but we're keeping it under our hats, of course. All we have to do now is recover the emerald...

And for a couple of master-minds like you, gentlemen, that will be child's play ... Thank you for putting us so clearly in the picture.

Now we turn from the excitement and suspense of a police investigation to another burning topic that is hitting to day's headlines...

Oh no! That's enough!

Stop! My eyes are simply streaming!

My eyeballs are doing the shimmy!

The next morning...

Poor gipsies!... I'm still convinced they're innocent... I've had another look at the wall: even a monkey climbing would have left some trace, but there wasn't a sign. What then?

Hello! There's Mr. Wagner going into the village, on Nestor's old bike.

He must have got permission to leave his piano. Now's our chance, Snowy...

We'll go back in doors... and we'll be spared that piano for a change!

Thanks... But why did you save me from her?

I wanted to get you alone... Now, sit down at the piano; it's safer... Then talk!

All right!... I'll tell you everything. It's the horses... I'm a gambler, you see. I go to the village every day to telephone my bets...

Hmm!

Is that so?... Still, you weren't in the village when the emerald was stolen... When some unknown person fell down the stairs... It was you, wasn't it?

Yes, it was I.

I'd been up to the attic... and on my way down I heard Signora Castafiore cry out... I hurried to get back to my piano, and missed the step.

Why were you in the attic?

Well, on a number of evenings I thought I heard someone walking about up there... at dusk... like the signora did on the night we arrived. In the end I decided to get to the bottom of it...

Why didn't you simply ask us?

I didn't want to make a fool of myself, if it was only a false alarm... Anyway, I didn't find anything.

One last point, Mr. Wagner. The day after you came, I found your footprints under Signora Castafiore's window...

Golly, how some people do love to talk!

Yes... it's quite possible. After that incident during the night I went round there, to make sure no one could have climbed the ivy.

Good... That's all the explanation I need.

No, I don't think Wagner stole the emerald: he seems to be telling the truth... Well, now I've got to find the real culprit!

In any case, I'll visit the attic tonight. We must follow every lead... Coming, Snowy?

Tell me, Captain, is there any message you'd like to send to Signora Castafiore?

A message?... Me?... For Castafiore?

No, a message!... I forgot to tell you, I'm leaving today for Milan: I'm going there to demonstrate my Super-Calcolator to the International Television Congress. Naturally, I shall call upon our charming friend.

Oh? Well, tell her whatever you like: but for pity's sake, don't invite her back to Marlinspike!

That's very kind: I'll tell her. She'll certainly be touched by your invitation...

Captain! Captain!

Now what?... Has he set the house on fire?

Is there a woodman anywhere near?

A woodman?... Yes, Charlie Sawyer, in the village... But why?

Thanks!... Oh, I almost forgot... Ring up the Thompsons... Tell them to come here as soon as possible: about the emerald.

About the emerald?... What?...

Later!... And remember to telephone, won't you?

But Tintin, look here...

Half an hour later...

We've only come as a special flavour... er, savour... er, well, so far as we're concerned, there's absolutely nothing Tintin can add to the case. Once and for all, the job was done by the gipsies, with the help of their monkey.

It's as clear as day to us, eh Thompson?

To be precise: dear as day. That's my opinion and I'm stuck with it!

There's only one thing Tintin can tell us: where the emerald is hidden.

And if you'll come with me, gentlemen, I will do precisely that!

You?!

No?!

Yes?!

Look out for the dead branch!

No damage done!... What about you? Have you found anything?

Yes, and how! I've got Irma's thimble...

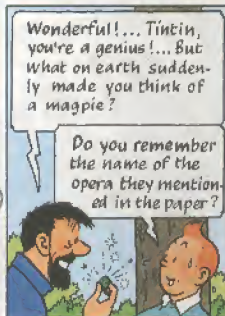

AND THE EMERALD! HERE'S THE EMERALD!!

Some bits of glass... a marble... and a monocle... That's the lot... I'm coming down.

Thief!

Wonderful!... Tintin, you're a genius!... But what on earth suddenly made you think of a magpie?

Do you remember the name of the opera they mentioned in the paper?

I don't know... "Pizza" or "Ragazza"... or something...

"La Gazza Ladra"... in other words The Thieving Magpie! Then the light dawned!

I thought to myself: "There's a 'gazza ladra' somewhere around... But where? ... What about the spot where Miarka found the scissors? They must have fallen from the robber's hiding-place." ... So I ran to look, and there was the nest!... Well, that clears the gipsies!

Just our luck! The one time we manage to catch the culprits they turn out to be innocent! It's really too bad of them!

You'd think they'd done it on purpose!

Anyway, thanks to us, the emerald has turned up. And all we have to do is to return it to Signora Castafiore.

You know, Cuthbert Calculus is just leaving for Milan. Couldn't we give him the jewel?

Definitely not! We and we alone must restore the emerald: we are in beauty doomed!...

As you like: here it is.

You know, what pleases me is the relief for the gipsies. They'll be completely cleared of suspicion now.

It's a sight for sore eyes...

To be precise, I'd say...

Goodbye, my friends. I'm just off... Is there any message for Signora Castafiore?

Yes, indeed!

Oh no! I'm flying: it's so much quicker.

I said the Castafiore emerald has been found! The em-er-ald!

THE EMERALD !!

Certainly not... I never do... I make it a point of honour to declare everything at the customs... Goodbye.

It's all right, Captain... Calm down! All we have to do is to send a telegram to Signora Castafiore.
